We are delighted to invite you to our upcoming production of School of Rock, which will be taking place on Thursday 22nd and Friday 23rd February 2018. Each performance will begin at 7pm, and finish at approximately 9.45pm.

Tickets are now available via WisePay, or from reception, and are priced at £6 for adults and £4 for children (under 18). There may be some remaining tickets available at the door on the nights of the performance but advance booking is recommended.

All the students have been working hard for months rehearsing for this production and we are looking forward to two spectacular evenings of entertainment. We hope you will be able to join us.
