

Expectation during the exam period

- Attend all exams in full uniform
- Continue attending intervention and lessons until you have sat the exam for that subject
- Where you might have some periods between exams that are free you can stay in school and revise.

14th of May Non Uniform Day

As exams are taking place on the 14th May, there are strict regulations that have to be adhered to (regarding clothing), it's important that students do not wear the following:

No hooded item of clothing, heads must not be covered (unless for religious reasons)

Clothing must not have writing on it e.g. slogans, phrases (small logos are permitted)

Items of clothing must not cover the hands e.g. gloves or running/sports tops with thumb holes

False nails are not permitted
